Free Advertising.

The newspapers are beginning to protest against the free work they are asked to do by the government and by individual and corporate enterprises. While the war was on they gave their space without stint but in peace times they think a government so liberal with public funds in other ways might pay for publicity. Hereafter, so far as this sheet is concerned, advertising is advertising.—Newberry Observer.

Modern Dental Suite.

Dr. J. S. Byrd has moved his dental office into the beautiful suite on the second floor in his new building. His rooms are not surpassed anywhere in the State. He has a reception room, ladies' dressing room, operating room and laboratory in the front portion of the second story and in the rear there is a waiting room and operating room for colored people. In addition to this modern suite Dr. Byrd has the most improved appliances by way of electrical devices and sterilizing equipment. Later he will install an X-ray machine for making examinations and X-ray pictures of the teeth to show the diseased parts if there be any. Dr. Byrd is being warmly congratulated upon his beautiful dental parlors.

NOTICE.

All members of the Sunday School of the First Baptist Church of Edgefield together with all others who wish to join, are urgently requested to be present for the next two successive Sunday mornings as we wish to grade and classify all classes for the coming year, beginning on October 1st, 1919.

Won't you come and join our Sunday School? I know from personal knowledge and experience that you would be greatly benefitted spiritually. COME! We will welcome you!

J. H. CANTELOU,
Superintendent.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.

The September meeting of the W. C. T. U. will meet on Monday at six o'clock with Mrs. A. L. Gunter, when the annual election of officers will take place.

Plans will be made for World's Temperance Sunday and Frances Willard Day in the school.

A reading entitled Appropriating the White Ribbon will be given by Mrs. W. A. Byrd.

As the books will close on September 25, all members are urged to bring in their dues, so that our treasurer, Mrs. Byrd, will be enabled to make a full report.

MRS. J. L. MIMS, Pres.

Just What She Needed.

"I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets some time ago and they proved to be just what I needed," writes Mrs. Volta Bankson, Chillicothe, Mo. They not only relieved me of indigestion but toned up my liver and rid me of backache and dizziness that I had been subject to for some time. They did me a world of good and I will always speak a good word for them."
